*Teacher Appreciation Week: Teachers~ just like everyone else~ love to be appreciated! A heartfelt thank you to the wonderful Jack and Jill Teachers and Staff! We are so blessed to have such talented, caring and dedicated group of professionals working with our children everyday. Just a walk through our school will remind you that our teachers routinely go "above and beyond" to make sure that our children grow and learn. In their daily interactions with children, our staff works to make sure that each child strives to achieve their potential.

Please join us in recognizing the dedication and hard work of the Jack and Jill teachers and staff during this week by sending in a letter of appreciation, flowers, baked goods, etc. to teachers and staff who have made a difference in your child's education. Our teachers do a fabulous job on a daily basis. Please use this opportunity to demonstrate your love and appreciation.
